Scripture: Philemon 1:8-11

Questions:

1. Onesimus was once labelled “useless,” but through Christ, he became “useful.” What labels (either spoken or unspoken) have you carried, and how might Jesus be reshaping your identity today?
2. Paul points to real change in Onesimus’ life. He returns, he humbles himself, he seeks restoration. What does genuine transformation look like in a person’s life, and where have you seen (or experienced) that kind of change?
3. Philemon is being asked to see Onesimus not as a slave, but as a brother. How can we grow in seeing others through the lens of Christ?
4. Onesimus received and lived out his new identity, even when it was risky. What would it look like for you to fully step into your identity in Christ this week, especially in a situation where it feels costly or uncomfortable?
